TRINITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

1809 North Main Street

Anderson, South Carolina

Ramblings from Rev. Roy

John and Charles Wesley's "Holy Club" began in 1729 at Oxford University. That organization is the root of Methodism, making it the only denomination that began out of a university setting. The Holy Club members gathered three or four evenings a week to study the Bible and the Classics, take food to poor families, visit the lonely in prison, and teach orphans how to read.

In their daily private devotions, they developed 22 questions to ask themselves about their own discipleship. I wonder how you and I might change (or be transformed) if we were to ask ourselves these questions daily??

1. Am I consciously or unconsciously creating the impression that I am better than I really am? In other words, am I a hypocrite?
2. Am I honest in all my acts and words, or do I exaggerate?
3. Do I confidentially pass on to another what was told to me in confidence?
4. Can I be trusted?
5. Am I a slave to dress, friends, work, or habits?
6. Am I self-conscious, self-pitying, or self-justifying?
7. Did the Bible live in me today?
8. Do I give it time to speak to me everyday?
9. Am I enjoying prayer?
10. When did I last speak to someone else about my faith?
11. Do I pray about the money I spend?
12. Do I get to bed on time and get up on time?
13. Do I disobey God in anything?
14. Do I insist upon doing something about which my conscience is uneasy?
15. Am I defeated in any part of my life?
16. Am I jealous, impure, critical, irritable, touchy, or distrustful?
17. How do I spend my spare time?
18. Am I proud?
19. Do I thank God that I am not as other people, especially as the Pharisees who despised the publican?
20. Is there anyone whom I fear, dislike, disown, criticize, hold a resentment toward or disregard? If so, what am I doing about it?
21. Do I grumble or complain constantly?
22. Is Christ real to me?

*Accessed at [www.umcyoungpeople.org]

These can be very humbling and eye-opening to ask ourselves. Which one (s) gnaw at your soul? What will you do about it?

God is with you in the journey.

Grace and peace,

Red Shoe Reflections with Rev. Kathryn

I love to read, I always have. I also have a very large collection of books that are waiting to be read. It doesn't matter how many books I make my way through, there is still a pile of books waiting. I have come to understand that collecting books and reading books are two different hobbies.

I enjoy sewing but I don't get to do it as often as I would like. I will also admit to having a very large collection of fabric. Some of the fabric was purchased with a project in mind and some was purchased because it was just pretty. While I haven't pulled out the sewing machine in a while, I found that like my books the pile of fabric doesn't seem to shrink no matter how much I sew. I have come to understand that collecting fabric and sewing fabric are two different hobbies.

1 Corinthians 13: 1-2 tells us, "If I speak in the tongues of humans and of angels but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers and understand all mysteries and all knowledge and if I have all faith so as to remove mountains but do not have love, I am nothing." I can own 1000s of books but if I don't read, I am not a reader. I can own yard after yard of fabric but if I don't sew it together, I am not one who sews. I can memorize Scripture and quote the Bible all day long but if I don't have love in my heart, can I really say I am a follower of Christ?

I think we have to go a step further though. We can't just have love in our hearts if no one knows it is there. We have to live our lives in a way that shows without a doubt that we are filled with the love of God. Sometimes I get to the end of the day and realize that I probably didn't do a very good job of showing love. My attitude, how I felt, traffic, can all affect my actions and I do find that sometimes my actions do not show God's love like they should. Honestly, that bothers me. God's love in me should outweigh my bad attitude. I should be so filled with God's love that it is overflowing. My bad mood should not keep it hidden. Guess you know what I will be focusing on over the next few weeks. Maybe I will even work on my "To be Read" pile of books....but chances are I'll just add to it..

Monthly Mission News

May

Our monthly mission for May is Epworth Children's Home. Our support last year helped Epworth serve 1,677 children and families through its statewide programs. Epworth is not an apportioned item, and it relies heavily on the offerings received to provide quality care to the individuals who are in Epworth's care weekly.

Please be in prayerful consideration of what God is calling you to give to help Epworth make a difference in the lives of children and families every day. For more information about Epworth, visit online at www.epworthsc.org.

Last year we raised $1,305.
Can we make it $1,500 this year?

TRINITY K.I.D.S. KIDS IN DIVINE SERVICE

May Edition

What's Happening in a Glance

Hello, friends. This month, our KIDS ministry will be looking at the story of Mary and Martha. For a young person in faith, this can be a tricky story - on one hand, Jesus tells us to serve; on the other hand, He reminds Martha that she needs to stop to enjoy the guest, too. For young people, this may look like a great excuse to not clean up rooms or help serve meals when family comes to visit. And, yes, it means that kind of, but so much more. We get busy doing the work sometimes and we forget to just pause and enjoy our time with Jesus. He may not be physically sitting on the couch in our living rooms, but He is very much here with us. Honor Him when you are serving and doing the work, but then, find time to pause and just hang out with Him, too. This is a weird idea for some of us, to spend time with someone we cannot see. Practice makes perfect (or at least, practice makes less awkward). I started talking to God while I was washing dishes or folding clothes and with time, I started feeling Him more and more around my home. I prayed in the car and at work. Now, I feel Him there, too. Sometimes, I need to talk to a brother or friend (Jesus). Sometimes, I need the hug of a Father (God) and sometimes, I need encouragement, strength or protection and I ask the Holy Spirit for help. I do not always have the words. Sometimes, we just sit in the quiet together or watch the sunset or the clouds move along in the sky. All of these are great 'Mary' moments of spending time with God. No magic words. No special places. Just you and God, you and Jesus, you and the Holy Spirit. Serve often but not always. We need to stop and enjoy the guest, too.

May is Mental Health Awareness Month

The Anderson County Office of the Coroner issued a report in April of this year reporting that Anderson County has seen a 300% increase in suicides compared to the first quarter of last year. From January to March of 2024 there were 8 suicides and that same time period this year there were 24. Ages ranged from 18 to 75 years old. (Payton 2025)

There are many reasons why someone feels that suicide is the only option and many of us will never understand that level of desperation. Yet many of us may struggle with poor mental health at times. While most Americans understand that mental health issues come from a chemical imbalance in the brain, there is still a stigma around mental health issues (NAMI 2016). "Conservative Christians may turn to religious support, often citing sin and a lack of self-control as the root of mental illness. This perspective can sometimes create a reluctance to seek professional help, but many still find comfort in their faith" (Hlongwane and Juby 2023). Struggling with mental health issues is not a sign of a lack of faith or a lack of prayer, it is a medical condition that needs treatment just like high blood pressure or diabetes.

Our faith can help us when we struggle, but incorrect teachings can also add to the struggle. Our goal is to help spread awareness so that everyone knows that help is available. While our Stephen Ministers are not trained to offer counseling for ongoing mental health struggles, as a Stephen Leader, I can help point you in the right direction to find the help you need. Feel free to contact me, Rev. Kathryn, at 864-224-2531 or kmbariou@umcsc.org. Below is also a list of services available in our community.

Special Called Church Conference Results

The special called Church Conference for the purpose of voting upon the Trustees recommendation of the future sale of the parsonage took place on Sunday, April 13 at 4pm. The District Superintendent led the meeting, and paper ballots were used. The vote was 31-17 in favor of selling the parsonage at the next senior pastor transition. The Mitchell family will stay in the parsonage for as long as this appointment lasts.

There were two additional requirements added for when that time comes in the future.

1. The standing District Superintendent will need to give his/her approval.
2. The Trustee Board and Church Administrative Council (current at the time) will need to give approval on the price on which to sell.

Campus/Business Report for May 2025

May has always been one of my favorite months of the year as it represents the concept of growth, both in nature and in business. We celebrate May Day, Mother's Day, Memorial Day, Cinco de Mayo, Graduations, Trinity's Springfest 2025 and the start of vacation season among many other fun events during this month.

Mark your calendar and plan to join us on Saturday, May 3rd for our 2nd annual #TRINITYSTRONG Springfest event starting at 8:30am and lasting until 2pm. We will have fun Kid Games, BBQ Plate Sale, Bake Sale, Silent Auction, Fun Run & 5K Run just to name a few things available for everyone to enjoy during this community event held on our church grounds. Invite your neighbors, work cohorts and friends for a fun morning and afternoon at Trinity UMC.

On April 13th Trinity held a special called Church Conference for the purpose of voting upon our Trustees recommendation to sell the parsonage. The District Superintendent led the meeting of church members who voted 31 – 17 in favor of selling the parsonage at the next pastor transition. The Mitchell family will continue to live in the parsonage for as long as his appointment last with Trinity- Anderson. The Trustees would sell the parsonage once the Mitchell family moves, the next lead Pastor would be given a housing allowance with the monthly amount determined by SPRC prior to starting the appointment at Trinity - Anderson. Invested money from the parsonage sell to help provide the housing allowance for our pastor moving forward. We expect this action to better serve our church financially while allowing our future pastor the choice of different housing that best suits them, various school locations, rental options, homeownership or property investments.

Your continued prayer, support and suggestions are deeply appreciated as we address property management and ministry responsibilities at Trinity UMC.
